

And the Audio book nominees are ...

The Cincinnati Enquirer
Saturday, February 03, 2007

The Grammy Awards are not the only ones given to audio books. There also are the Audio Publishers Association's annual Audies Awards. Titles released between Nov. 1 2005 and Oct. 31 2006 were eligible. Winners will be announced June 1 at a gala hosted by actor and audiobook narrator Jim Dale (yes, he of the Harry Potter audio books and a 2007 Grammy nominee for "Peter Pan"). Here are the finalists ...

Fiction, Unabridged

Restless by William Boyd, narrated by Rosemund Pike (Audio Renaissance)

Rise and Shine by Anna Quindlen, narrated by Carol Monda (Recorded Books, LLC)

Telegraph Days by Larry McMurtry, narrated by Annie Potts (Simon & Schuster Audio)

The Prestige by Christopher Priest, narrated by Simon Vance (Blackstone Audio Inc.)

The Two-Minute Rule by Robert Crais, narrated by Christopher Graybill (Brilliance Audio)

Water for Elephants by Sara Gruen, narrated by David LeDoux & John Randolph Jones (HighBridge Audio)

Biography/Memoir

Diana by Sarah Bradford, narrated by Katie Kelgren (Penguin Audio)

Dispatches from the Edge by Anderson Cooper, narrated by him (HarperAudio)

Elizabeth by J. Randy Taraborrelli, narrated by Lynne Maclean (Hachette Audio)

Sound and Fury by Dave Kindred, narrated by Dick Hill (Blackstone)

Teacher Man by Frank McCourt, narrated by him (Simon & Schuster)

The Great Escape by Kati Marton, narrated by Anna Fields (Tantor Media Inc.)

Children's Titles (ages 8-11)

A Series of Unfortunate Events: The End by Lemony Snicket, narrated by Tim Curry (Harper)

Behind the Curtain by Peter Abrahams, narrated by Colleen Delany (Harper)

Jumping the Scratch by Sara Weeks, narrated by Stephen Spinella (Harper)

Listening for Lions by Gloria Whelan, narrated by Bianca Amato (Recorded Books LLC)

Two Weeks with the Queen by Morris Gleitzman, narrated by him (Bolinda Publishing)

Judges' Award: Politics

Faith and Politics by former senator John Danforth, narrated by him (Listen & Live Audio)

Hubris by Michael Isikoff and David Corn, narrated by Stefan Rudnicki (Blackstone)

In Time of War by Pierce O'Donnell, narrated by Raymond Todd (Blackstone)

The One Percent Doctrine by Ron Suskind, narrated by Ed Herrmann (Simon & Schuster)

Wake Up Call by Kristin Breitweiser, narrated by her (Hachette)

<http://frontier.cincinnati.com/blogs/litchick/2007/02/and-audio-book-nominees-are.asp>